Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAR. 4, 1864.

Letter from Dr. Bellows!

The following has been handed to us for publication:

"U. S. SANITARY COMMISSION,
NEW YORK, Jan. 9th, 1864.

"My Dear Mr. Holbrook:—Your remittance—heavy with cash and patriotism and humanity—of $1,438 arrived yesterday, and I hasten to repeat our thanks for all that the people of Oregon and Washington Territory are doing in their far-away country for our National interests and sacred cause. I received only a day or two before, a newspaper from Portland, in which your interest had so permanent a place, and such a full and reliable account was given that it was evident enough our affairs are in most judicious hands, and had their full recognition in your generous people's hearts.

"To the ladies of Vancouver, for their present of $530, making their contribution for the year $1,000—to the five churches in Portland who celebrated their thanksgivings in a way to make many more in our soldiers' hearts and tents, and to the Aid Society of Ladies, through whom the Good Spirit moved them; to the Ames Chapel neighborhood for their $70, and to St. Paul's Chapel, Oregon City, for its $38—we return to each and every one our special gratitude.

"California and the Pacific coast are all alive again with zeal in our cause. We know that your end of the coast, if colder in climate, has no chill in its blood and that Mount Hood has no currents or snows which can freeze over your hearts or frost bite and stiffen your ever opening hands.

"With a thousand thanks for your personal zeal in this work, which must have commanded so fully your time and strength, (although I know it has been a labor of love, paying you as you went along,) permit me to remain ever, your obliged and grateful friend and servant,

"HENRY W. BELLOWS, President.

"P. S. Everything looks bright as to the prospects of the war, and the nation's cause! LAUS DEO!"

LOYALTY JUSTLY DOUBTED.—Since Doctor Henry began to defend men who preferred the election of a traitor to that of an abolitionist, and to attack the Secretary of the Treasury most falsely and abusively, the Standard has been looked upon as unworthy of the confidence of patriotic men. In the last number, which contains a keen and expansive criticism upon its tortuous and semi-treasonable course, the official editor evaporates himself through two columns of weak but characteristic words, seeking to excuse himself and to define his position. It was needless, for every body who knows him, expects to find him running after the strong side, if he can discover which that is. He is simply guided by his interest without regard to principle. When Democracy is uppermost, he is with it—when it is down, he is somewhere else, but when there is any symptom of its restoration to power, he is sure to be on hand again. How strange that an honest man like the President should put any confidence in such an addle-pated weathercock!

DEMOCRATIC ABUSE OF PATRIOTIC IRISHMEN. Every Northern paper which is in sympathy with treason and slavery, denounces T. M. Meagher, Gen. Corcoran and their associates as Irish mercenaries. The reason for this is that these brave men have fought and suffered for the Union, have been faithful to their oaths of allegiance, and have offered their lives in defence of the institutions of freedom. If they had continued to act with the Democratic party, on the side of treason, there never would have been a whisper of fault found with them; they would have been petted and admired, as the friends and champions of a party which is based upon slavery, and they would have been named and praised as fit associates of Fernando Wood and Vallandigham. But because they are faithful and patriotic, they are stigmatized as mercenaries by men too base to appreciate the privileges of liberty.

THE ADDRESS THIS EVENING.—We hope our readers will not forget the meeting to-night at the Methodist Church, to listen to the eloquent and patriotic appeal of Rev. Thos. H. Pearne, in behalf of the soldiers who need active sympathy and aid. Even if the weather is unfavorable, there ought to be a full house, and a generous contribution. Remember that storm and darkness cannot be avoided by the brave men who stand as sentries and defenders between the nation and treason, and let us assist in bearing the severe and heavy burdens which their heroic fidelity has brought upon them.

WEEKLY LINE.—The San Francisco papers advertise the steamer Panama "for Portland only," to sail on Saturday, the 5th inst. We understand that the Brother Jonathan left a very large amount of freight for this port, which it was impossible to take. She was filled to her utmost capacity on the first day she was advertised,—the drays crowding the approach to her wharf for six blocks.

PICAYUNE KINGDOMS.—A correspondent of a London paper writes: "I have just returned from Germany after a month's knocking about. I had glorious weather and saw all the little kings at Frankfort. There is a good anecdote of one of them. He wanted his army instructed in the use of the Armstrong gun, so he got one, but was obliged to ask leave of the next King to have the target put up in his kingdom, his own not being big enough for the Armstrong gun."

EASTERN NEWS.

CAIRO, Feb. 20.—From an officer from the Big Black we have the following facts: Shortly before entering Jackson, severe skirmishes occurred between Sherman's forces and a body of rebels, supposed to number from 4,000 to 5,000. They resulted in the rebels being defeated, with a loss of 40 prisoners. Our army then passed through Jackson in two columns, the enemy retreating across the Pearl river with such precipitation that their pontoon bridges, 2 pieces of artillery and a number of prisoners fell into our hands. All kinds of provisions were seized by our forces, and the advance moved [illegible] the sweep of a tornado [illegible] the march of a large army. Deserters are coming [illegible] lines in squads of from 10 to 20. The [illegible] encouraged to desert by their company officers.

Great dissatisfaction prevails among the Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi regiments, and all are swearing that, when their time expires, they will fight their way out if necessary. At Big Black 40 refugees came in direct from Mobile. Some 15,000 troops are in and about the city of Mobile and many of them are old men and boys. Quite a large Union element exists among the inhabitants, but they cannot express themselves. The poorer classes, who have no property to be confiscated and who are suffering terribly, say boldly they would rejoice if the Yankees would come into the city.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Hilton Head accounts report a reconnoisance to Johnson's Island by Gen. Terry, and the capture of a rebel battery of field pieces, with caissons, ammunition and all the gunners.

Gen. Gilmore has issued a call to the Floridians to return to their allegiance, and prohibiting the destruction and pillage of property by our soldiers.

Gen. Sherman reached Meridian ten days after leaving Vicksburg. A portion of Lattle's division was cut off and returned to Vicksburg. Gen. McPherson accompanies Gen. Sherman with most of his corps. We have no confirmation of the report of Gen. Smith's being wounded. The guerrillas keep up a musketry fire upon the steamers, but with little damage.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Feb. 20.—Intelligence has reached here that Gen Price had received 60 days furlough to enable him to go to Texas. The belief at headquarters and throughout the rebel army, is that he will never return. He left Camden ten days ago, with a small escort.

Gen. Curtis's body guard was fired on from an ambush near the old battle-field at Prairie Grove, a few days since, but escaped unhurt.

Survivors of a party of Texas refugees arrived yesterday. The main party were attacked at Kosha Valley, 120 miles from here, and all but 11 killed or captured.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF WEST VIRGINIA, Feb. 21.—Major Cole, with a portion of the 1st Maryland Cavalry, had a skirmish yesterday at Piedmont Station with Mosby's command, and took 17 prisoners, including three officers. Our loss was two killed and two wounded. The rebels had five killed and a number wounded.

It is estimated that 2,000 refugees and deserters have come within our lines since Jan. 18th.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 21.—Officers from the front report all quiet at Chattanooga and Knoxville.

Refugees from Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee continue to come in daily, many of them in a starving condition.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Richmond papers of the 20th have the following:

Mobile, Feb. 15.—Forrest was at Oxford on the 9th. He was concentrating a column of infantry 8,000 strong, from Memphis via Hernando, and 12 regiments of cavalry via Collinsville. Sherman's forces, 35,000 strong, are marching in close order, with Lee's army harrassing their flanks picking up the stragglers.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—The only slave States represented in the National Convention meeting at Washington yesterday were Delaware and Maryland. The vacancy from California was filled by Cornelius Cole.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The Times' Hilton Head letter of the 18th says: Operations in Florida are still going on, although as yet there has been no fighting of moment. Our forces have advanced as far as Barbora. Within two or three days our cavalry have been at work in the country, a few miles off the Florida Central railroad, but have not effected any brilliant achievements, beyond the capture of a train of cars running between Jacksonville and Barbora. A considerable difficulty is experienced in getting vessels of moderate draft over St John's Bar. Every blow tends to increase their obstinacy. It is reported that Beauregard is on his way from Savannah with a large force, to oppose our further progress toward the interior. The road is clear from Jacksonville to Lake City, and we do not fear meeting the enemy in force this side of the Suwanee river. The permanent occupation of Florida may be set down as a fixed fact.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Court at St. Johns, New Brunswick, has committed the Chesapeake pirates to prison to await a requisition from the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Gov. Johnson and the Tennessee delegation had a long interview with the President relative to the restoration of Tennessee to the Union. It is understood that while they do not favor the plan of the President, yet the interview was agreeable. They say Tennessee will soon be formally restored with a civil government.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 25.—The Union State Convention unanimously passed resolutions indorsing the Administration and recommending the nomination of Lincoln for re-election. Gov. Morton was nominated for re-election, by acclamation. The Convention was very large; every portion of the State represented.

The Savannah News says little apprehensions are felt for the result of the Florida Expedition, and ample arrangements have been made to prevent any extensive advance.

The Richmond Examiner of the 18th announces the despatch of the first instalment of Yankee prisoners, on the 17th, to the Georgia new prison at Port Fine. 6,000 are to be sent there, at the rate of 400 or more daily.

CUMBERLAND GAP, Feb. 24—A battalion the 11th Tennessee cavalry and three companies of infantry were attacked by a large force of rebel cavalry on the 22d, five miles east of here. Our forces were surprised, and it is believed that all but two companies of infantry were captured. At the same time the rebels attacked our outposts at Powell's bridge, five miles south, but were repulsed three times, when our men retired.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25—The House Military Committee had under consideration the question of increasing the pay of the soldiers, but came to no definite conclusion. As to the amount of pay which they should receive, it ranges from $16 to $25 per month. The Committee will probably compromise on $20.

The Tribune's special dispatch says that the Committee on the Pacific Railroad held a meeting last night for the purpose of consulting with prominent men from the West interested in the early construction of the road.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Tunnell Hill was captured on the 24th. 300 prisoners were taken. Our loss is reported at 75 killed and wounded.

WASHINGTON Feb. 25—The Ways and Means Committee to-day reported the bill authorizing the issue of bonds, to the amount of $2,000,000,000 redeemable after 5 years, payable in 40 years. This issue is in lieu of that amount authorized as 10-40 bonds by act of 3d March, 1863.

It is officially announced that Gen. Sigel is appointed to the command of the Department of Western Virginia.

KNOXVILLE, Feb. 24—A reconnoisance in force, under General Stoneman was made on Monday night towards Seiverville. It was discovered that the rebel cavalry have retreated beyond French Broad River. Longstreet began to retire on the 20th from Strawberry Plains, towards Bull Gap, he first destroyed the bridge, and report says his camp equipage. Schofield moved to the Plains, with Union forces to-day.

There is a rumor of a raid in Longstreet's rear now current, which it is supposed will account for his precipitate retreat.

Special dispatches from Washington says of 30,000 veterans, whose time will expire within the next nine months, 25,000 have re-enlisted.

NEW YORK, Feb 25—The U. S. Senate yesterday passed the Lieutenant-General Bill, after striking out the provision recommending the President to appoint Gen. Grant.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Six more of Farragut's fleet are ready for sea. His fleet will comprise nearly 40 vessels.

Rumor says the Vanderbilt is ordered to China.

Specials also deny the report from England that Minister Adams withheld any of Seward's despatches from Lord Russell on account of their offensiveness.

WASHINGTON, Feb 25.—A despatch from Tunnel Hill (Ga.) yesterday, says: Our troops having advanced to Tunnel Hill on Tuesday, fell back in the evening 4 miles. Joe Johnston's command having abandoned their position at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the advance was again resumed, a portion of Baird's, Davis's and Johnson's divisions moving forward on the main road from Ringgold, while Cruft's command of Stanley's division, marched by the Catoosa Springs road further to the left. No skirmishing of any consequence took place at half-past 11 o'clock. When our forces had reached the immediate vicinity of the town of Tunnel Hill and as soon as the infantry in sufficient numbers to support the cavalry had arrived, a column of the latter advanced along the road in plain view of the hill on which the rebel cannon were planted the day before. The rebel battery to the right of Tunnel Hill immediately opened, throwing a number of shell with accuracy into our ranks. Part of our artillery coming up opened on the enemy with some effect, lessened somewhat by the apparent imperfection of the shells, very few of which exploded. Two pieces of the 9th and 10th Indiana battery afterwards were placed in position to the left of the road and materially assisted in dislodging the rebel battery. The infantry now advanced, taking the rebels on the right flank, and boldly marched along the crest of Tunnel Hill, completely turning the enemy's works. Their left being also threatened, by a portion of our forces, they fled, and our whole line moving forward, occupied without further contest the ridge of Tunnel Hill. The rebel works along the crest were of a tolerably formidable character.

At 4 in the afternoon the rebels were retreating along the Dalton road, and our troops pursued within three miles of Dalton, where the rebels were found very strongly posted. Through the high, precipitous range of mountains called Rocky Fall, our advance was met by a sharp musketry fire which was vigorously replied to and the first rebel line was driven back on the second. The enemy immediately opened a furious fire of shot and shell from six pieces, compelling our skirmishers to retire. The fire was kept up till sundown. McCook's and Morgan's brigades have taken up a position at the mouth of the gorge, and may have heavy fighting to-morrow, unless they can turn the enemy's position, which now seems scarcely practicable.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Washington special despatches say that Lee's orderly has deserted and arrived at Washington. The strength of Lee's army is now 25,000. He expects our army to be ready for operations by the middle of March, at which time he has ordered all his men to be back. Stuart's cavalry had used up all the forage, and the horses had been sent South for forage. Lee expects by March or April to have 50,000 men to check any advance of our army, or drive it back on Washington, and invade Pennsylvania.

The Conference Committee on the Whisky bill are unable to agree and probably the bill will fail. In this event the Ways and Means Committee have a new bill ready, embracing petroleum, whisky, tobacco and cotton, and offering to Congress an opportunity of taxing stocks on hand of all these articles.

The French flagship Pallas left Panama for Acapulco, to enforce the blockade. The U. S. frigate Lancaster was at Acapulco, watching the movements of the French.

The report that the French Minister had broken off friendly relations with Ecuador is not correct. Trouble continues in the interior, and it is feared that the revolution is far from over.

Foreign News.

PARIS, February 3.—The Patrie of this evening publishes under reserve the news that the Italian Government has protested against fortifications being erected by Austria near Pas [illegible] in contravention of the treaty of 1850.

A Hamburg dispatch says: We have no news from the seat of war. It is believed that the Russians will prevent the transmission of news. Severe fighting is thought to be going on, as numbers of wounded are constantly brought to Rendsburg.

Earl Derby, in the House of Lords, condemned the foreign policy of the Government as humiliating to England. Earl Russell alluded that England had not given the slightest promise of assistance to Denmark. In the House of Commons, Lord Palmerston defended the policy of Earl Russell. The majority of the British journals have pacific tendencies.

The debate on the Danish question generally inspires more confidence in commercial circles in England; but it was felt that it was by no means defined what ultimate shape the policy of England would take.

In the Commons on February 5th, Mr. Whiteside called attention to the distress in Ireland and consequent emigration of fighting men to America.

Parliamentary papers relating to Japan estimate the destruction of property at Kagosima at £1,000,000, and 1,600 persons killed.

A semi-official Vienna paper expresses a hope that the explanation just sent by Austria and Prussia to England will avoid all further complication in the Danish business.

Lord Russell in reply explained that the Danish-German difficulty showed that England was quite unfettered in the matter, never having given the slightest promise of assistance to Denmark.

Earl Grey condemned the bombardment of Konigsberg and thought that Denmark had been encouraged to look for assistance from England.

In the House of Commons Disraeli spoke, assailing the foreign policy of the Government.

Palmerston replied vigorously, defending the course of Russell.

Gladstone explained that the promise stated by Denmark was given under circumstances different from those which controll the present war.

Lord Manners stated that the Alexandra case would be taken before the House of Lords, whatever the decision may be of the Court of Exchequer in Chambers—it being the wish of all parties to have the law on this difficult case settled by the highest legal authority.

The Liverpool Chamber of Commerce had been discussing an alleged system of nominally transferring American ships to the British flag, and by this evasion of the law avoiding the risk of capture. The subject was finally referred to a Committee to make a report thereon.

Marshal Wrangle had issued a proclamation to the Schleswigers, saying that civil commissioners of Austria and Prussia will assume the administration of the Duchy of Schleswig only, not, as had been stated, of Schleswig and Holstein.

The London Times says the British Government a few days since, made to the two German powers a proposition which deprived them of every possible ground for hostilities. England offered to guarantee the fulfilment of the required conditions and to embody the German principles as to the government of Schleswig Holstein in a protocol to be signed by the signers of the treaty of 1852. When, therefore, the troops of two German powers passed the Eider, those governments knew that all they had demanded had not only been conceded but guaranteed, by a first-class power, which had been the chief adviser of Denmark, and possessed the power of enforcing its own opinions. Can it then be said that the war on which they have entered is other than a useless carnage? But with the antagonism between the Dane and the German heated by mutual slaughter, we have little hope that moderate counsels will be listened to by either side.

Proceedings on the 3d inst against Schleswig are reported as follows in an official bulletin from Prussia's head quarters: The Austrian vanguard, led by Gen Von Gobbinz in person, with the vanguard of Prussian Guards advanced against Schleswig on the 3d, and engaged with bayonets. The allies repulsed the Danes, partly between Lettarfinch Gottlerb, and stormed Konigsberg and Obersalk. The attacking force captured a rifled gun. The losses were considerable.

The attack was continued on the 4th without making much impression on the Danish lines. The King of Denmark had left Schleswig, and had arrived at Sonderberg. The loss of the Austrians to the storming of Ingel is stated at 400, including many officers. A false guide conducted the Prussians against Austrians, and they fired upon each other. The Danes had altogether about 1,000 hors de combat at Schleswig on the 3d—300 killed and wounded, and 700 ill from the inclement weather. The loss of the Austrians at latest date was 800 officers and 819 men.

It is asserted that the Danes have sent cruisers after the Prussian vessel Duke Frederick. It has been proclaimed at Eckernford and Schmonger, in Schleswig, that the Austrian Eyecrath expressed its sympathy for the army in Schleswig and they had been granted extraordinary credit of 4,000,000 florins.

It was reported at Paris that a revolution had broken out at Copenhagen, but is no doubt unfounded.

Both Houses of the [Danish] Rigsraad adopted resolutions exhorting the people to tranquility and order, and pledging itself to the energetic defense of the country. An address to the King was voted.

The Austrian headquarters on the 9th were at Tarup, and the Prussian at Flensburg.

The Germans had decided to raise [the siege of] Dannework.

It was rumored that the Prussians attacked the Danes at Dussel, and lost 500 men. The Danes in great numbers had arrived at Alser.

It was reported that Denmark had proposed an European Congress relative to Schleswig.

The Post says the situation is informal and urges a suspension of hostilities. It says the time has arrived for the basis of arrangements to be discussed. The Herald contends that if Austria and Prussia repudiate the treaty of London, a general war can hardly be avoided.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Florida left Brest on the night of the 9th. It is supposed the Kearsarge would pursue her.

The Danish Rigsrath have voted an address to the army in favor of the vigorous prosecution of the war.

Marshal Wrangle has issued a proclamation declaring the authority of Denmark suspended in Schleswig.

The Vienna Bottsford says, that Denmark by its anterior conduct and armed resistance, has abolished all treaties. The treaty of London no longer exists. Austria and Prussia are masters of the policy toward Denmark.

The London Morning Post says that England has proposed an armistice preliminary to a conference by Russia, France and Sweden. In Parliament, Lord Derby attacked the Government policy in regard to the Alabama and Laird's rams, and insinuated that the latter were seized under American menace. He moved for production of papers relative thereto.

Lord Russell defended the Government, and declined to produce the papers, pending legal enquiries.

SONDERBURG, Feb. 11.—It is stated that the Danes have evacuated Duppel, and embarked their troops to Olsen Island.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Morning Post says that the basis of England's proposition for an armistice is the evacuation by the Danes of Schleswig except Olsen Island.

QUICK FORGETFULNESS.—A boy aged ten years was sent to school for the first time. The teacher, to test his information, asked him, "Who made you?" The boy could not answer. The teacher told him the proper answer, and desired the boy to remember it. Some hours afterwards, the teacher repeated the question. The boy rubbed his head in great agony, and at length answered, "I swow! I've forgot the gentleman's name."

LATER FROM THE EAST.

DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN, VIA JACKSONVILLE AND [illegible] CITY.

Dates to March 1st.

CHICAGO, March 1.—Richmond papers have the following:

Charleston, Feb. 25.—During the last 24 hours 145 shells have been fired into the city. The enemy has a battery on Dixon's Island, commanding Schooner Creek.

Charleston, Feb. 26.—Enemy continues to shell the city. One hundred shells were thrown yesterday.

Tallahassee, Florida, Feb. 26.—Gen. Finnegan's forces occupy this place. The enemy has retreated to Jacksonville.

Stockville, Miss., Feb. 26.—There was heavy fighting all day yesterday at Pontiac. We killed 40 and captured over 100. Our loss is not known. Col. Forrest was killed and Col. McCulloch wounded. The battle closed by a charge from the enemy's cavalry, which was repulsed.

Clonch, Ga., Feb. 26.—The Yankees have left Pontiac. We lost many officers and men. Sherman's advance has reached Pearly Fair (?).

Dalton, Ga., Feb. 26.—The enemy have been dislodged from our front, retreating towards Chattanooga. Gen. Wheeler is pursuing them.

Longstreet has withdrawn his forces to a point which it is not prudent to mention. The enemy had not crossed the Holston.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 27.—Gen. Lane captured 25 of the enemy five miles east of Cumberland Gap, on Thursday, Feb. 25. The enemy fell back two miles. They will not probably make a stand this side of Chickamauga. All signs of a general engagement have failed.

Gov. Brown of Georgia has issued a proclamation for a special session of the Legislature on the 10th of March.

Gold in New York yesterday 158.

NEW YORK, March 1.—The Bremen, with dates from Southampton to the 15th, has arrived:

The seizure of pirates at Cape Good Hope is confirmed.

A revolution is expected in Denmark.

Copenhagen journals say the Privy Council has resolved to devote the whole strength of the nation to the recovery of Schleswig.

The Prussian and German heavy artillery has gone to Gluckaburg, from which place Fleusburg harbor and Duppell can be bombarded.

High gales are prevailing on the English coast.

In the House of Lords, Earl Russell proved by comparing dates that his detaining the Birkenhead iron rams was not influenced by the representations of Mr. Adams.

In the House of Commons, Pleas (?) gave notice of a demand for compensation made by the United States for injuries done by Confederate cruisers.

In the House of Lords, Earl Russell said as to the claims of the United States for damages done by the Alabama, that he considered England in no way responsible for them, and no hope is held out for a change of policy.

It is officially announced that a Conference of the minor German States will open on the 18th February, at Warsaw—Saxony, Hanover, Baden, Saxe, Heimer and Havre to attend.

Letter from Placerville.

PLACERVILLE, BOISE CO., IDAHO,
February 20th, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I have not much to write this time. No shooting. All the parties in the Holbrook-Brittain case were acquitted on the ground of a free shooting match.

We had a little snow last night, and a thaw to-day. The emigration is coming in fast and still is increasing. The travel out is to the Owyhee and South Boise. Pack trains and wagons are constantly arriving, loaded with the luxuries and necessaries of life.

Money is getting a little plentier. We have a good school established here, and also one at Badnock.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 21.—The Border State Emancipation Convention was very largely attended from Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky. Between 200 and 300 delegates were present. Nothing was done yesterday except the appointment of commissioners, resolutions, and permanent organization. During the afternoon a circular letter, signed by S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman of the National Executive Committee, was distributed among the members, declaring among other things that were the election of Lincoln desirable, it would be practically impossible against a union of the influences which would oppose him; that should he be re-elected, his manifest tendency towards compromises and temporary expedients of policy would become stronger during a second term, and the cause of human liberty and the dignity and honor of the nation would suffer proportionately; that the patronage of the Government, through the necessities of war, has been so rapidly increased, to such an enormous extent, and so loosely placed as to render the application of the one-term principle absolutely essential to the safety of republican institutions; that we find in Salmon P. Chase more of the qualities needed in a President during the next four years than are combined in any other available candidate; that the discussion of the Presidential question already commenced by the friends of Mr. Lincoln, develops a popularity and strength in Mr. Chase unexpected to his warmest admirers. For other reasons, also, the friends of Mr. Chase have determined on measures which will present his claims fairly before the country. A central organization has been effected, which already has connections in all the States, the object of which is to enable his friends everywhere to most effectually promote his elevation to the Presidency.

HOME LEAGUES WANTED.—We have a million little societies in this country for the reformation of mankind; they never tire in doing good offices at home and abroad, acting in every conceivable way; and one must be lucky who lives a day without being called upon by an agent of one or more of these associations or asked to subscribe to their funds. There is no people from the North to the South Pole, and around the whole circuit of the globe, for whom we have not a society to do something—a league to perform some great work. This is unavoidable from the moral state—the outbursting spirit—of the age in which we live; but there is one more association yet needed, and that is an oath bound league for the suppression of extravagance in our homes. Not that we may save money and grow rich; that is a trifling matter, but that we may preserve society from the utter demoralization that we have lamented in the old world, and which is sinking us infamously in the new.—Newburyport Herald.

THE BROTHER JONATHAN.—Since the last appearance of the steamship Brother Jonathan in these waters, she has been materially improved, both in looks and capacity. Having a new hurricane deck, the full length of the ship, her accommodation for passengers is greater than ever before. The new tier of rooms on the upper deck is very neat and comfortable, while below, upon the main deck, superior arrangements are provided for steerage passengers. This steamship was at one time considered among the fleetest packets on the Atlantic Coast; in those days her wheel houses were very high above her decks, presenting much more resemblance to a sea going steamer than she now has. The Brother Jonathan first came to the Pacific Coast in 1863, we believe, where she has ever since been engaged, from Victoria all along to Mexico and Panama. Her present shape is intended for this trade, where she is expected to run the coming season. Her officers remain the same as before, with the exception of G. W. Hutchinson, the popular chief officer, who is succeeded by Mr. Allen, since the smuggling of opium between Victoria and San Francisco on the Pacific, last fall. S. I. Dewolf is her commander. The office of Purser is filled by Mr. Poole; Chief Engineer Mr. Mott; 1st Assistant Mr. Rogers; Freight Clerk Sam. Holmes; Chief Steward Richard Dalton, the same who, for three years past has made this route his home.

DELEGATES TO THE COUNTY CONVENTION.—At the city precinct meetings of the Union voters of Portland, held yesterday afternoon, the following named gentlemen were chosen as Delegates to attend the County Convention which is to meet in this city on the 12th inst.:

South Portland Precinct—(Meeting at the Court House.)—John Terwilliger, Jos. Bergman, H. Failing, E. Bennett, W. W. Sherd, T. A. Wood, L. M. Parrish, A. Hurgren, J. G. Glenn, J. M. Marble, B. B. Tucker, J. H. Mitchell, W. N. Patton, A. G. Walling, T. H. Pearne, W. S. Powell, B. P. Cardwell, S. A. Moreland, R. J. Ladd, Thomas Frazar.

North Portland Precinct—(Meeting at Thompson's Hall.)—W. Cornell, H. Wasserman, L. H. Wakefield, H. B. Morse, A. M. Starr, C. W. Burrage, James W. Cook, H. D. Green, L. C. Potter, H. C. Coulson, R. B. Knapp, A. P. Ankeny, Jno. Ewry, W. Burch, J. N. Dolph, A. B. Stewart, Levi Anderson, E. W. Hodgkinson, P. C. Schuyler, Jr.

The following resolutions were adopted, unanimously, at both meetings:

Resolved, That we fully endorse the measures of the National Administration to suppress the existing slave-holder's rebellion, including especially the Emancipation Proclamation and the more recent Amnesty Proclamation.

Resolved, That we are in favor of only those men as office-holders in Oregon, and elsewhere, who can give unqualified support to the measures of the Administration to suppress armed treason and preserve the country and Government from dismemberment and anarchy.

Resolved, That in the event that Congress shall submit amendments to the Constitution of the United States forever abolishing slavery in all portions of the Union, to the several State Legislatures, that we are in favor of the Legislature of Oregon supporting such proposed amendments.

Resolved, That the memory of our fathers, our national honor and glory, our hope for the future, our fidelity to liberty, all forbid any compromise or hesitancy of purpose until the rebellion is crushed and the Star Spangled Banner floats over every acre of the Republic.

Resolved, That no sacrifice is too valuable in order to secure to us and to our children, in the future as in the past, the priceless heritage of civil and religious liberty.

Resolved, That the delegates elected from this precinct to the County Convention be instructed to request the adoption of the foregoing, or similar resolutions, by the Union County Convention, before any election is had of Delegates to the State Convention, and that the Delegates to the State Convention from this County, be instructed to procure, if possible the adoption of the same before any nominations for the various State offices are made.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.—The Council met last evening. A full board was in attendance—President Sutton in the chair.

The minutes of the meeting of the 24th, and the last meeting, were approved.

The report of the committee on streets and public property, relative to a city Cemetery, was adopted.

The city collector reported for the month ending March 1st, $3,531 90; $3,323 59 of which was paid into the treasury; referred.

The following bills were ordered paid:

C H Myers $125; W H Birch $32; Ben F Smith $[illegible]; Weil Bros $17 50; Henry Campbon, for burying [illegible] dead dogs, $1; R Pittock $30; W B Clark $7; L Pittock $7; W B Clark $43 90; L Foreman $1 60; — Ward, $4; J F McCoy $27 10; Portland Gas Company $160 and $15 25; Three bills of D. Wright, amounting to $154 50.

The proposition of Mrs. Carter, with communication relative to a contract with the city was referred to judiciary committee.

A resolution relative to advertising in the DAILY OREGONIAN for bids to paint fence of Public Square, and for building side walks, etc. for the same, was adopted.

The City Marshal was instructed to purchase stationery for Council Chamber.

The committee on streets, &c., were instructed to cause lamps to be constructed at the corner of Third and Washington, Fifth and Stark, and Second and Morrison streets, and to have lighted all lamps now erected within 75 feet of the "mains."

The following resolution was offered, which was lost:

Resolved, That the committee on fire and water be ordered to carry out the provisions of the ordinance relating to the purchase of a steam fire engine, and that they be instructed to send by this steamer.

The City Marshal was instructed to have removed, the stove, bedding, etc., from the city small pox hospital.

The street commissioner was ordered to repair the bridge on Front street, near Jefferson, and also the platform around the flag staff.

On motion Council adjourned.

A MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.—The Council last evening ordered repairs to the Front street bridge. This is certainly an improvement much needed. The bridge is dangerous, in its present condition, both for pedestrians and teams. The carriage way is filled, level to the stringers, with mud, while the walks are broken and rotten, besides, one of the railings has been carried away by age. The pressure on the bridge at this moment, from mud, is nearly enough to break it down. The travel across that bridge is becoming immense, and the locality should be supplied with a good structure.

THE wagon which was stalled at the corner of Third and Washington streets, night before last, and which received a notice in our columns yesterday, was the property of Mr. J. Rines, of this city. The wagon was left carelessly by the driver, and much to the dissatisfaction of the accommodating owner, who would rather "put himself out" than discommode the public. Drivers should be more careful.

THE draft for the new Engine House of No. 3, is on exhibition at Common Council room. It is a neat sketch.

THE CELEBRATION.—A meeting of the Committees appointed for the purpose of carrying out the project of the Telegraph celebration, was held at the Pioneer Hotel last evening. The finance committee reported a very successful gathering of funds, and the committee of arrangements are taking such action as will secure the "waking up" of the people when the time comes for a jubilee.

THE Enterprise went within six miles of Eugene City, on her last trip. She will leave Canemah for Fairfield on the arrival of the Senator at Oregon City this morning. Next week it is expected she will get through to Eugene City.

THEATRICAL.—In consequence of a sudden illness of Miss Morgan, "Richelieu" was substituted for the play announced last evening at Willamette Theatre. The cast was somewhat hurried, yet the play was well executed. Mrs. Leslie is deserving of great praise for her excellent singing, one song is generally sung during each evening, which is worth hearing.

THE rush of passengers by the steamer has caused another press in our hotels. We hear of parties in search of beds all day yesterday, some pleading that they had occupied the cabin floors of the steamer every night out.

THE bad weather last evening prevented many from attending the concert at St. Mary's Academy last evening.

PERSONAL.—Hon. A. C. Swift, of Bannock City, was among the passengers of the Brother Jonathan, returning to his mountain home, from a visit to California.

HYDROPHOBIA.—This dreadful malady is so rare in California that we have never before had to chronicle such an event. But the dog that broke that big mirror of Houston, Hastings & Co., the celebrated Clothiers, of Lick House, San Francisco, must certainly have been mad and no mistake. We understand the above firm have had a magnificent mirror manufactured by Cameron & Whitier expressly to replace the one the dog broke.

GOLDSMITH BROS.,
ASSAYERS,
Pay the Highest Price for Gold Dust.

The Old-Fashioned Choir.

BY BENJ. F. TAYLOR.

I have fancied sometimes, the old Bethel-bent beam,
That trembled to earth in the Patriarch's dream,
Was a ladder of song in that wilderness rest
From the pillow of stone to the Blue of the Blest,
And the angels descending to dwell with us here,
"Old Hundred" and "Corinth" and "China" and "Mear."

All the hearts are not dead, not under the sod,
That those breaths can blow open to Heaven and God!
Ah, "Silver Street" leads by a bright golden road,
—Oh, not to the hymns that in harmony flowed—
But those sweet human psalms in the old-fashioned choir,
To the girl that sang alto—the girl that sang air!
"Let us sing to His praise," the minister said,
All the psalm-books at once fluttered open at "York,"
Sunned their long dotted wings in the words that he read,
While the leader leaped into tune just ahead,
And politely picked out the key-note with a fork,
And the vicious old viol went growling along,
At the heels of the girls, in the rear of the song.

I need not a wing—bid no genii come
With a wonderful web from Arabian loom,
To bear me again up the river of Time,
When the world was in rhythm and life was its rhyme;
Where the stream of the years flowed so noiseless and narrow,
That across it there floated the song of a sparrow;
For a sprig of green carraway carries me there,
To the old village church and the old village choir,
When clear of the floor my feet slowly swung
And timed the sweet pulse of the praise as they sung
Till the glory aslant from the afternoon sun
Seemed the rafters of gold in God's temple begun!
You may smile at the nasals of old Deacon Brown,
Who followed by scent till he ran the tune down—
And dear sister Green, with more goodness than grace,
Rose and fell on the tunes as she stood in her place,
And where "Coronation" exultantly flows,
Tried to reach the high notes on the tips of her toes!
To the land of the leal they went with their song,
Where the choir and the chorus together belong.
Oh, be lifted, ye Gates! Let me hear them again—
Blessed song, blessed Sabbath, forever, amen!
—Chicago Journal.

GROWN CHILDREN'S TOYS.—Children have the advantage of grown people in the matter of playthings. There is some fun in playing at ball, at battledore and shuttlecock, in riding rocking-horses, dressing dolls, and putting puzzles together. These things amuse. We feel sometimes as if we should like to trundle a hoop, or play at "peg in the ring" with the rising generation. But the toys of maturity—in the world of fashion especially—are the most senseless of all senseless inventions. They can't be played with; their sole value to the possessor consists in the fact that they excite admiration mixed with envy in the breasts of others. The millionaire's daughter who appears at a party with a bandeau of pearls or diamonds round her head and brilliants dangling from her ears, does not even see them. All her fun is in seeing that others see them and covet them. Her fifteen hundred dollar Cashmere shawl does not give her the unalloyed pleasure that a five-year-old Miss derives from a fifty cent doll. If it were not that the costly fabric creates an unfriendly feeling in the bosoms of her "dear friends," she would just as lief wear a California blanket. It is the same with splendid mirrors, damask hangings, Axminster carpets, expensive laces, and all the other sumptuous toys of wealth and fashion. Surely that is a sorry kind of enjoyment which is based on vanity, ostentation, and the hope of exciting envy. Yet such is the foundation of most of the pleasures which full-grown children derive from their gauds and gew-gaws. The youngsters have much the best of it. Their trumpery is a source of innocent delight. When they meet in the play-room their gimcracks are common stock, and no invidious heart-burnings mar their frolics. Their's is rational, creditable pleasure, and even if they fall out and fight now and then over their ninepins and wooden soldiers and penny trumpets, they soon kiss and make up, and are as jolly as ever. Surely such tiffs, though they may result in a scratch or two, are better than the silent wrath with which a coral-beaded Miss regards a belle ablaze with jewels, or a French-shawled dame a Cashmered dowager at the opera, or than the supercilious contempt with which resplendent Shoddydom regards Shabby Gentility. Oh! yes, the honest, hearty boys and girls have greatly the advantage, as regards their playthings and their plays, of the "Children of a larger growth."

ARCHBISHOP HUGHES.—During the administration of Gov. Seward, it is well known that the relations of the eminent ecclesiastic, then a bishop, with the Governor, were very friendly, so much so that the politics of the Catholics usually Democratic in those days, were divided, and the Bishop's influence was very powerful with his Excellency. It did not secure his re-election however, and he was succeeded by Bouck. An authentic story is told of the attempt of Bishop Hughes to negotiate with Gov. Bouck the same position he had enjoyed with Gov. Seward; Bouck being a rich Dutch farmer, but little versed in either political or ecclesiastical subtleties. The Bishop called upon the Governor and sent in his card: "Good morning, Mister Hughes," said Bouck, "I am glad to see you sir." A pause ensued, when Hughes said, "Bishop Hughes, your Excellency, of New York."

"Ah! Bishop Hughes, so good morning, Bishop Hughes, I am glad to see you, sir."

The Bishop again interposed, saying with emphasis: "Perhaps your Excellency does not recognize the title of his visitor: I am the BISHOP of this diocese."

"Oh, ah—so; I am glad to see you Bishop Hughes: and how is Mrs. Hughes?"

The Bishop gave over in despair. The interview verified what one of Gov. Bouck's partisan's had said during the canvass to a neighbor, who had urged him to vote for Seward,—"Governor Seward," said the one, "is a much smarter man than Bouck; he has a much longer head."

"So! Well, may be ish longer, but ish not so tick."

A funny affair took place in Brooklyn the other day, the dramatis personæ being a lady in Bloomer costume and a little imp of Satan belonging to the ancient and honorable fraternity of boot blacks. The strong minded one was parading Fulton street on a fine afternoon, attracting immense attention from the horde of promenaders, and seeming quite self-satisfied as to the stunning effect upon spectators, of her neuter-gender-ativeness, when a jolly member of the boot-blacking brigade rushed in front of her at a most critical juncture, placed his tools of trade directly in the path, squatted in professional style close to her dear little hoofs, and began to bellow, at the top of his lungs, "Boots blacked, sir?—shall I shine 'em up, sir?" Of course the lady was huffy at short notice: she assisted the noisy loafer to a horizontal position with her insulted and indignant little foot, stuck her pot pug away up into the air, and strode homewards at the double-quick, disgusted with the degeneracy of the present age in its refusal to acknowledge the synonymous and interchangeable character of the sexes.—Bloomerism is below par now-a-days and far from paying investment on our crowded thoroughfares.

THE BRIDAL MISHAP.—Recently, a fun loving bridesmaid played a very unhandsome joke off upon a newly wedded pair. She put them into a clock bedstead, having wound it up for four o'clock. The alarm of the young couple may be imagined, but not described, when, in the midst of the lady's first sleep, she was awakened by the horrible din of the alarm, with her husband's "What the deuce is that?" and before she was thoroughly awake, she was violently tossed on the floor. Jumping up, she ran to her friend's room, crying.

"Good gracious!" cried her friend Liddy, in affected astonishment; "what is the matter dear—do tell me!"

"He—he—he," sobbed the weeping bride, and stopped.

"He, he, he—oh, how can I tell?" sobbed the bride.

"Come, come, out with it. It shall be a secret. Do tell," implored her friend.

"How can I? how can I? But he— —"

"He what?" asked Liddy; "kissed you?"

"No! no!" sobbed the bride; "he kicked me out of bed!"

The matter was soon explained, and no divorce has yet been applied for.

SUNNYSIDE AND IRVING.—The gate of his own charming little domain on the beautiful Hudson River was forever swinging before visitors who came to him. He shut out no one. I had seen many pictures of his house, and read descriptions of it, in both of which it was treated with a not unusual American exaggeration. It was but a pretty little cabin of a place; the gentleman of the press who took notes of the place, while his kind old host was sleeping, might have visited the house in a couple of minutes.

And how came it that this house was so small, when Mr. Irving's books were sold by hundreds of thousands, nay millions, when his profits were known to be large, and the habits of life of the good old bachelor were notoriously modest and simple? He had loved once in his life. The lady he loved died; and he, whom all the world loved, never sought to replace her. I can't say how much the thought of that fidelity has touched me. Does not the very cheerfulness of his after life add to the pathos of that untold story? To grieve alway was not in his nature; or, when he had his sorrow, to bring all the world in to condole with him and bemoan it. Deep and quiet he lays the love of his heart, and buries it, and grass and flowers grow over the sacred ground in due time.

Irving had such a small house and such narrow rooms, because there was a great number of people to occupy them. He could only afford to keep one old horse, (which lazy and aged as it was, managed once or twice to run away with that careless old horseman). He could only to afford to give plain sherry to that amiable British paragraph-monger from New York, who saw the patriarch asleep over his modest, blameless cup, and fetched the public into his private chamber to look at him. Irving could only live very modestly, because the wifeless, childless man had a number of children to whom he was as a father. He had as many as nine nieces, I am told,—I saw two of these ladies at his house—with all of whom the dear old man had shared the produce of his labor and genius.—Thackeray.

NEW THOUGHTS BY AN OLD MAID.—Men are like lucifers; the silent ones are much more to be depended on than those which go off with so loud a report that they extinguish their own light.

There is a time of life when we content ourselves with sitting at the window to see other people pass; and this is about the earliest symptom of middle age. The window which is the most eligible for this purpose is the old beau-window.

Matrimony resembles the moderator lamp. There is always something the matter with it.

How refreshing is tea, and how exhilirating is an evening party; yet for both a spoon is required, to prevent the sweets remaining unmixed for want of a stir.

Existence, with its one success, after so many disappointments, reminds us of the game of whist. It is only the last card that we deal which turns up a trump.

What a wonderful thing is starch, and what a pity it is we cannot dip some weak minds in it.—Fun.

Sheriff's Sale.

WHEREAS an order of sale has been placed in my hands issued under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah County, commanding me to make sale of the following described real estate, to-wit: Land claim No. 50, as described on the record in the Land Office at Oregon City, being the east half of the south-east quarter of Section 25 in Township One North, Range One East, and containing 80 21-100 acres; and also the tract of land known as claim No. 47 on said record, commencing at the intersection of the Section line of said Section 25, which runs east and west and bounds the south-east quarter of said Section on the north, with the Township line, thence from said point of intersection east along the north line of the south-west quarter of Section 30, in Township One North, Range Two East, 31.35 chains to a point on said north line, thence south 25 chains to a point designated by a stake, thence at a right angle bearing west 32 chains to a point designated by a stake on the Township line, thence north along said Township line 25 chains to the north-west corner of the south-west quarter of said Section 30 to the place of beginning, with the improvements thereon, lying in Multnomah County, Oregon.

Notice is given that I shall sell the above described land, &c., at public auction in front of the Court-House door on Saturday, the 2d day of April, 1864, pursuant to a decree of foreclosure of a mortgage on said premises, rendered by said Court on the 9th day of February, 1864, in favor of Lewis M. BUCHTEL & CARDWELL'S
PICTURES ARE THE BEST IN OREGON

HELMBOLD'S
Genuine Preparation.

"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"

Compound Fluid

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,
Loss of Memory,
Weak Nerves,
Horror of Disease,
Dimness of Vision,
Universal Lassitude of the Hot Hands,
Dryness of the Skin,

Loss of Power,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Trembling,
Wakefulness,
Pain in the Back,
Muscular System,
Flushing of the Body,
Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES!! FEMALES!!

OLD OR YOUNG,

Single, Married or contemplating Marriage

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE!

No Family should be without it.

TAKE NO MORE BALSAM, MERCURY, OR UNPLEASANT MEDICINE FOR UNPLEASANT AND DANGEROUS DISEASES.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

AND

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

CURES SECRET DISEASES,

In all their Stages; At Little Expense;
Little or no Change in Diet; No Inconvenience,
AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of Diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, diseased and worn out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS

Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended.

Evidence

of the most Responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Certificates of Cures

From Eight to Twenty Years standing, with names known to science and fame.

"PHYSICIANS," PLEASE "NOTICE."

We make no "secret" of "ingredients." HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, Juniper Berries, selected with great care by a competent Druggist. Prepared in vacuo, by H. T. HELMBOLD, Practical and Analytical Chemist and Sole Manufacturer of Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

AFFIDAVIT.

Personally appeared before me, an Alderman of the city of Philadelphia, H. T. HELMBOLD, who being duly sworn, doth say his preparations contain no narcotic, no mercury, or other injurious drugs, but are purely vegetable.

H. T. HELMBOLD.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE Co., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.
